PERSONAL ATTENTION

At Britannia we appreciate how important your pet is to you. If you've decided to move abroad it's likely you will be taking your pet(s) with you and as a valued customer Britannia tries to support you in all aspects of your move.

Since there are many aspects in sending a pet overseas we suggest that you speak to one of our specialist partners who are experts in this field.

By way of this brochure we would like to introduce you to Par Air Services* who have been sending pets overseas since 1953.

All animals are shipped by the quickest and most direct routes assuring the maximum safety and comfort.

DOCUMENTATION & INSURANCE

Par Air have kennelling facilities to board your animal prior to departure. Daily visits are made by a veterinary surgeon who will undertake any veterinary formalities that are required for the country of importation.

Specialist travel containers are made specific to your pet. The collection of your pet can be made throughout most of the UK and it can be sent door to door to most worldwide destinations.

Par Air are able to offer insurance cover on your animal whilst in transit; giving cover from your door and up to 24 hours after arrival at destination.

For more information detach and post the tear off slip to Par Air Services.

Another best of breed solution from Britannia.

*Britannia's role is purely as an introducer to Par Air Services. Britannia are unable to accept any responsibility for any issues resulting from your decision to use Par Air Services.
